

Shockwave Medical Publishes 2022 ESG Report

May 31, 2023

SANTA CLARA, Calif., May 31, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Shockwave Medical, Inc. (Nasdaq: SWAV), a pioneer in the development and commercialization of transformational technologies for the treatment of cardiovascular disease, today released its 2022 ESG Report highlighting accomplishments in environmental, social, and governance (ESG) across its global markets.

"We are proud to release our ESG Report, which showcases our continued progress during 2022 towards developing a more sustainable business across our global business and to being a responsible corporate citizen that prioritizes our ethical values, inclusive culture and environmental initiatives," said Doug Godshall, President and Chief Executive Officer, "The Corporate Values that drive us at Shockwave go beyond our patient-centric devices and extend to addressing the impact that our company has on the those with whom we interact, including our employees, customers, suppliers, communities and stockholders. We know our ESG efforts will continue to evolve as our business and the world change, and we are committed to learning throughout this journey and finding ways to make as much positive impact as possible."

Throughout 2022, Shockwave took several important actions to advance its ESG program, which is focused on five grounding principles: Planet, People, Products, Community and Governance. The report highlights our ESG accomplishments, including:

- Measuring our greenhouse gas emissions for 2022
- Adding new electric vehicle charging stations to our Santa Clara buildings
- Pursuing LEED and Fitwel certifications for our future Costa Rica manufacturing site
- Continuing to grow of our all-women Shockwave Women Achieving Together, dedicated to advancing the careers of women in engineering, technology and cardiovascular devices
- Making significant progress toward ISO 14001 certification, which is on target for completion in 2023
